

Lisa Howard

Biography

Lisa's Broadway credits include the Tony Award winning Lincoln Center Theater revival of "South Pacific" and the musical comedy "9 to 5." She is most known, however, for her starring role as Rona Lisa Peretti in William Finn's Tony Award-winning musical, "The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee," for which she received a Drama Desk Award (Best Ensemble). She recently performed in the world premier of Emmet Otter's Jug Band Christmas at the Goodspeed Opera House and appeared in the Kaufman Center's Broadway Close-up Series in "Stephen Schwartz, Magic To Do" and William Finn's "More Infinite Joy" and "Even More Infinite Joy." She has sung with the Cincinnati Symphony and with Peter Nero and the Philly Pops in their Broadway Show Stoppers series and Holiday Pops concerts. At Town Hall in NYC, Lisa has performed in "Broadway Unplugged," "A Night At The Operetta" and the popular "Broadway by the Year" series. She has toured with the national company of "Les Misérables" and performed around the country at such prominent regional theaters as St. Louis MUNY, Olney Theater Center, Goodspeed Opera House, Barrington Stage and Kansas City Starlight. Some of her favorite roles include 'Irene' in "Crazy for You," 'Joy' the Stepsister in "Cinderella" and 'Trina' in Finn's "Falsettos." Lisa is a graduate of the Cincinnati College Conservatory of Music. For more information and up-coming events please visit: www.lisahowardnyc.com
