

JASON GRAAE

press quotes

"...Mr. Graae emerges as an irresistible cut-up whose splendid voice is matched by mischievous charisma..." -- Stephen Holden, New York Times

"Graae hurrah! Simply put, Jason Graae is one of the best entertainers I have ever seen in my life...a prodigiously talented impish dynamo who can be wildly, wickedly funny one moment and then leave you emotionally stunned the next with the beauty of compelling ballads sung in the purest tenor/baritone imaginable..." -- David Cuthbert, New Orleans Times-Picayune

"I hated it. But the audience laughed and laughed." -- Washington Post

"Graae is a Cabaret dynamo -- commit the name to memory!" -- Hap Erstein, Palm Beach Post

"A Lyric baritone with a radiant tenor extension he uses to seductive effect, Graae had the audience hanging on to his every note." -- Octavio Roca, Miami Herald

"Graae gives it the old college try but his efforts fall short - he winds up being merely adequate when something more is in order." -- Poughkeepsie Journal

"His laughs come so fast you have to be careful not to choke on your 2 drink minimum!" -- Chad Jones, Oakland Tribune

"...Jason Graae is wired! He'll do most anything for a laugh -- and usually gets one!...Radiant baritone...Best Bet..." -- LA Times

"...It would be easy to put Graae solely in the category of a 'musical clown' except for the deep-felt sincerity and emotion he invests in every number. He levels the audience with...haunting ballads..."
-- LA Daily News

"...Graae wowed audiences...Cabaret Pick of the Week!..." -- LA Weekly

"...Jason Graae raises versatility to new heights. He's a comic, a character actor and a balladeer... extraordinary range...is a superb comic...magnificent voice!..." -- Variety

"...The exuberant Graae is the best master of patter since D'oyly Carte stopped touring Gilbert and Sullivan!..." -- Curtain Up

"Jason Graae, an impish one-man arsenal of comic mischief with a real voice brought the evening to a peak with 'You Can Get Away With Anything' (from 'The Woman In White'), hilariously mugging and clowning as the world's most shameless and stage-hogging ham..."

-- Stephen Holden, New York Times

"...Mr. Graae emerges as an irresistible cut-up whose splendid voice is matched by mischievous charisma..." -- New York Times

"...He is sensational, the elastic grace of a rubber band, the sharp instinctual timing of a comedian and a surprisingly powerful voice..." -- Chicago Sun-Times

"...The undoubted master of humorous song is Jason Graae, who sings, moves, and mugs his way to definitive renditions, exuberant in support, not at the expense, of his material..."

-- New York Magazine

"...The irrepressible Jason Graae once again shows himself to be in the royal line of Broadway comics..." -- New York Post

"...Simply sensational...Arguably the best cabaret show of the year. This was inspired goofiness coupled with extraordinary musicality..." -- Backstage

"...The versatile Jason Graae tenderly croons a ballad one minute and then belts out a riotous comedic number the next. Graae pulled it off, but he's just about the only guy around who could do so..."

-- Los Angeles Times

"...Jason Graae, the ace of West Coast Musical Comedy!" -- L.A.Daily News
